

“THEY ALWAYS SAY TIME CHANGES THINGS, BUT YOU ACTUALLY HAVE TO CHANGE THEM YOURSELF”

- Andy Warhol

Service Skills Australia is conducting an ideas forum.

We want to hear from you!

The aim of the forum is to gather ideas on skills and training in your industry.

IDEAS FORUM

SPORT,
FITNESS,
COMMUNITY
AND OUTDOOR RECREATION

Service Skills Australia would like to invite you to participate in our upcoming forum on workforce development for the sport and recreation sector.

This full day event will build on the outcomes of industry consultation that sought to define the industry in light of the massive community, social and economic changes in Australia. Our aim for this event is to engage in a collaborative process to produce a national workforce development strategy for the sports and recreation sector.

This event will be facilitated by well know and respected facilitator Dr Lynn Gribble and hosted by Service Skills Australia in partnership with industry.

There will be no charge for this event that seeks to bring together a range of industry leaders across the sport and recreation sectors to debate the significant issues surrounding human capital improvement in our industry.

THIS IS AN INVITATION ONLY EVENT. YOUR PRESENCE WILL ENSURE ITS SUCCESS

We want your view on:

- What are the learning and development priorities for our industries?
- How should we – as an industry – address the issue of developing our workforce?

Date: 8 October 2008

Time: 10am to 4pm
(includes lunch)

Location: Regus Business Meeting Places
Level 1,
151 Clarence St
Sydney NSW 2001

Please RSVP by the 1st October to Anne-Marie Yates, Research Officer @ Service Skills Australia, via email: ayates@serviceskills.com.au, or telephone: 02 8243 1200.